

SMART Investment and International Property Expo 2013

On June 8-9, 2013, Infocast was invited and successfully held an iInvestor-iOrbit product demonstration at Hong Kong Exhibition and Convention Center.

Through a visually stunning, simplified user interface and advance technology product, Infocast demonstrated how the market can gain interactive insight to manage all your investment process.

With tremendous interest and support, thank you to all those who stopped by our booth and for those we met on the floor.
